Dr. GEO. W. McNULTY.

Got a bargain to offer? Don't laide it. Let every nody know it through of his friend, he knew it would be folly to make the attempt in utter darkness.

contesquently is considered in the low. dinzy apartment he took a long step sideways. This made it necessary for his enemy to grope for him and both had the same advantage. The young stood without making a cound and listened intently.

In the profound stillness his keen sense of hearing told him Ozafes was moving stacking across the floor toward the door in his search for him and deplie the extreme caution he used the listener was able to locate him. The intention he had it is made of cast from, but just now he's as a good as dad.

Thus the advantage lay wholly will be for the door, where evidently he reached out a hand, depending upon his sense of feeling to place his victim. Failing to door, where evidently he reached out a hand, depending upon his sense of reeling to place his victim. Failing to do so, he knew he had single to have the grant for elsewhere.

On the first move he turned in the right directon, and a minute later was able to the man who was waiting for lesewhere.

On the first move he turned in the right directon, and a minute later was a fint. The device of the contract of the man who was waiting for the man was the product of the man waiting skull with the awful force of a catapulit.

And it did the business, too, for the athlete struck with all his appalling might.

There was a crash, a smothered exclamation and Oggles shot across the foom and to the floor.

Knowing that he was "dead to the world" for the time, Dick drew his match safe from his pocket and struck a light. Looking at the senseless figure at the other side of the room he grimly muttered:

"Such fellows die hard; I'm afraid he'll revive after awhile."

Then, before the match expired, he lifted off the hot chimney and ignited the incrusted wick. Replacing the minutes before. Glancing over his shoulder at the prostrate river pirate the added:

"It will be ten or fifteen minutes be-

"LOOK OUT FOR YOURSELF! YOU ARE IN GREAT DANGER."

"Tes; jump as straight as you can."

Up went the Hercules in the air, as if he iore only a feather's weight. At the opportune instant the detective made his spring.
